

The background of the cover is a colorful illustration. At the top, there are three stylized birds in flight and a large, fluffy cloud with a yellow-to-blue gradient. The title 'Quirk Books' is written in a large, dark blue, serif font. Below it, 'Kids & YA Rights Guide' is in a smaller, purple, serif font, and '2019' is in a pink, sans-serif font. The bottom half of the cover features a vibrant landscape. A large, bright yellow sun is partially obscured by a multi-colored rainbow. In the foreground, there's a blue pond with a log floating in it, surrounded by green bushes and trees. To the right, there are stylized houses in shades of purple and blue, and a winding path. The overall style is whimsical and child-friendly.

Let's Find Momo!

A Hide-and-Seek Board Book

by Andrew Knapp

He's back! Everyone's favorite hide-and-seek border collie returns in Let's Find Momo, a kid-friendly photography board book that features Momo hiding on a farm, in a bookstore, at a construction site, and in other unlikely locations. (The photos are also loaded with other hidden objects for kids and parents to find together.) Perfect for bedtime reading, car trips, playtime, or anytime, Let's Find Momo is part art book, part puzzle book, and all fun!

ANDREW KNAPP is a freelance interface designer, photographer, and tireless traveler from Northern Ontario. His Instagram feed featuring photographs of his border collie Momo is an internet sensation, with 575,000 followers and counting. MOMO is Andrew's best buddy, an excellent traveling companion, and a genius at hiding in beautifully composed landscape photography. Let's Find Momo is his third collaboration with Andrew, following Find Momo (Quirk, 2014) and Find Momo Coast to Coast (Quirk, 2015).

Home Alone 2: Lost in New York

Based on the movie written by John Hughes and directed by Chris Columbus

Illustrated by Kim Smith

YIKES! Kevin did it again!

The beloved sequel to Home Alone is now a Pop Classics picture book, complete with iconic moments captured in Kim Smith's colorful and adorable illustrations.

It's the holidays and Kevin doesn't want to go on his family vacation to Florida. ("They don't even have Christmas trees there!") Amid the chaos and confusion of the airport, he accidentally boards the wrong plane and ends up alone (again!) in New York City. Kevin goes sightseeing, checks into a hotel, and enjoys limo rides, all courtesy of his dad's credit card. But then he encounters some crooks from his past who are up to no good. Harry and Marv, who tried to rob his house last year, are back—and this time they plan to rob a toy store on Christmas Eve! Can Kevin stop them and save Christmas, with the help of some new friends? This sweet and funny adaptation will delight fans of the Home Alone franchise, young and old alike.

JOHN HUGHES wrote the story and screenplays for Home Alone and Home Alone 2. He also wrote and directed many popular films for teenagers and adults, including The Breakfast Club and Ferris Bueller's Day Off.

CHRIS COLUMBUS directed Home Alone and Home Alone 2 as well as many other celebrated family films, including Mrs. Doubtfire and Harry Potter and the Sorcerer's Stone.

KIM SMITH has illustrated all the books in the Pop Classics series. A graduate of the Alberta College of Art and Design, she lives in Calgary, Canada.

The Karate Kid

The Classic Illustrated Storybook

Based on the movie written by Robert Mark Kamen and directed by John G. Avildsen

Illustrated by Kim Smith

When The Karate Kid appeared in theaters in 1984, its heartwarming story of an unlikely friendship between a bullied boy and his karate teacher won over audiences and inspired children across America to take up martial arts. Now this beloved film is reimagined as a Pop Classics picture book, with Kim Smith's bright and kid-friendly illustrations capturing all of the story's iconic moments. Young Daniel moves to a new town and becomes the target of bullies from the local karate dojo Cobra Kai. Hoping to win the upcoming karate tournament, Daniel begs his neighbor Mr. Miyagi to help him train. Mr. Miyagi reluctantly agrees. But he becomes more than just Daniel's sensei by teaching him lessons about patience, balance, and hard work along the way. This timeless story about finding inner strength will enchant children, their parents, and anyone who has ever had that one special teacher.

ROBERT MARK KAMEN is a screenwriter and producer. He has written many films, including the first three films in the Karate Kid franchise.

JOHN G. AVILDSSEN was an acclaimed director who directed the first three Karate Kid films. He won an Academy Award for his work on Rocky in 1977.

KIM SMITH has illustrated all the books in the Pop Classics series. A graduate of the Alberta College of Art and Design, she lives in Calgary, Canada.

The GayBCs

By Matt Webb

A celebration of LGBTQ+ vocabulary and embracing one's true self.

In this joyful and timely book of ABCs, four friends play and explore during a play-date extravaganza. As they sashay out of the closets and discover a wardrobe fit for a queen, they realize that many problems can be solved with a little makeup, pure imagination, and, of course, your best friends! From A is for Ally to N is for Nonbinary to Q is for Queer, debut author/illustrator Matt Webb uses bright illustrations and an inclusive message to show kids and adults alike that every identity is worthy of being celebrated.

MATT WEBB is an author, illustrator, and graphic designer who spends his free time getting lost in Central Park. He was born and raised in McMinnville, Tennessee, and now lives in New York City.

The Worst Case Scenario Survive-O-Pedia

Junior Edition

By David Borgenicht, Molly Smith, Brendan Walsh, and Robin Epstein

Illustrated by Chuck Gonzales

"I have a loyal group of nonfiction readers (ages 8-10) who come into the library each week in search of The Guinness World Records. If all of the Guinness books are checked out, then they will check out The Scholastic Book of Records or The Dangerous Book for Boys. Now there's a new general knowledge book that will have reluctant readers asking for more... Beware, you'll need to start a waiting list once the kids see it!"—The Nonfiction Detectives blog

It's the best of the worst! This hardcover, full-color edition of the popular series loved by parents and kids alike serves up a wild ride through mudslides, volcanos, shark-infested oceans, menacing mountains, and more. Seventy entries are packed with illuminating facts, eye-popping photos, hilarious illustrations, must-see maps, heaps of humor, and step-by-step instructions. Readers will be armed with the knowledge and skills needed to survive anything and live to tell about it!

DAVID BORGENICHT is a writer, editor, publisher, and co-author of all the books in the Worst-Case Scenario Survival Handbook series. He lives in Philadelphia.

Kid Activists

True Tales of Childhood from Champions of Change

By Robin Stevenson
Illustrated by Allison Steinfeld

Moving, funny, and totally true childhood biographies of Martin Luther King Jr., Susan B. Anthony, Helen Keller, Malala Yousafzai, and 12 other inspiring activists.

Every activist started out as a kid—and in some cases they were kids when their activism began! But even the world's greatest champions of civil liberties had relatable problems, sometimes in the middle of often extraordinary circumstances. Kid Activists tells their relatable stories through child-friendly texts and full-color cartoon stories on nearly every page. The diverse and inclusive group encompasses Susan B. Anthony, James Baldwin, Ruby Bridges, Frederick Douglass, Alexander Hamilton, Dolores Huerta, Helen Keller, Martin Luther King Jr., Nelson Mandela, Iqbal Masih, Harvey Milk, Janet Mock, Rosa Parks, Autumn Peltier, Emma Watson, and Malala Yousafzai.

ROBIN STEVENSON is an award-winning author of over 20 books for kids and teens. Her writing has been translated into several languages, published in more than 10 countries, and nominated for many awards. Her YA novel A Thousand Shades of Blue was a finalist for Canada's top literary honor, the Governor General's Award. Her YA nonfiction book Pride was a Stonewall Honor book and selected to ALA's Rainbow List. She lives with her partner in Victoria, British Columbia, with their son, dog, and cat.

Kid Scientists

True Tales of Childhood from Science Superstars

By David Stabler
Illustrated by Anoosha Syed

With the best elements of the Kid Legends series--colorful illustrations, kid-relatable subjects, and real stories of childhood conflict, comedy, and triumph, Kid Scientists tells true tales from the childhoods of a wide range of the world's most brilliant scientists before they were famous.

The diverse and inclusive cast ranges from physicists like Neil De-Grasse Tyson, Marie Curie, and Stephen Hawking to inventors like Benjamin Franklin, Albert Einstein, and Nikola Tesla, and includes astronaut Sally Ride, mathematician Katherine Johnson (of Hidden Figures fame), primatologist Jane Goodall, and many more, making it a perfect addition to libraries, classrooms, and kids' home collections alike. With Anoosha Syed's whimsical illustrations bringing every caper, scrape, and sticky situation to life, this book is a fun and approachable introduction to the giants of the scientific world.

DAVID STABLER is the author of Kid Presidents (Quirk, 2014), Kid Athletes (Quirk, 2015), Kid Artists (Quirk, 2016), and Kid Authors (Quirk, 2017).

ANOOSHA SYED is an illustrator based in Toronto, Canada. She graduated with a BFA in Illustration from Ceruleum: Ecole d'arts Visuels in Lausanne, Switzerland. Her other clients include Simon & Schuster, Random House, and Macmillan.

Warren the 13th and the 13-Year Curse

By Will Staehle and Tania Del Rio

This finale to the Warren the 13th series begins soon after the second book’s conclusion, in which the Warren Hotel transformed into a giant ship and set sail for the open seas. Warren is adjusting to the demands of running a floating hotel and is planning his thirteenth birthday party when disaster strikes—the hotel is shipwrecked on a strange island, and Warren’s friend Sketchy is kidnapped! Warren and his crew set off on a rescue mission across the high seas, meeting a delightful new cast of characters along the way, including elderly pirates, a sea witch, and a talking clam. As Warren pursues Sketchy’s kidnappers, he will learn the truth of his friend’s mysterious origins—as well as one final secret of the Warren Hotel. Once again, you can expect stunning illustrations from Will Staehle on every page, along with plenty of riddles, puzzles, and adventure galore!

TANIA DEL RIO is the author of the Warren the 13th series. A professional comic book writer and artist, her clients include Archie Comics, Dark Horse, and Marvel. She is best known for her work writing and drawing the 42-issue run of Sabrina the Teenage Witch. She lives in Los Angeles.

WILL STAEHLE is the illustrator and designer of the Warren the 13th series, plus many dozens of award-winning book jackets. Print magazine named him one of the Top Twenty under Thirty New Visual Artists. He lives in Portland, Oregon.

Tales from Lovecraft Middle School

Series Overview

“Fans of [R.L. Stine’s] Goosebumps and other lightly creepy fare will look forward to spending more time with [this] series.”—Publishers Weekly

by Charles Gilman illustrations by Eugene Smith

It’s a new school year in a strange new school: Lovecraft Middle School. It’s a brand-new state-of-the-art facility—so why do creepy things keep happening? Why do teachers act so strangely? And where are all the rats coming from?

In Professor Gargoyle, 11-year-old Robert and his new friends Glenn and Karina discover that the school library might be a portal to another world, one teeming with monsters, demons, ghosts, and other beasts that go squish in the night.

In The Slither Sisters, we follow Robert and his friends deeper into the world of Lovecraft Middle School—and its bizarre parallel dimension, where they match wits with a pair of mysterious twin sisters who may not be what they seem . . .

Teacher’s Pest introduces us to student council president Howard Mergler. Don’t be fooled by his polite manners or perfect test scores—he’s really a horrible insectoid monster determined to destroy the school!

In our newest book, Substitute Creature, after a giant storm dumps over a meter of snow on the town, Robert and his friends find themselves trapped in Lovecraft Middle School. They have no choice but to spend the night sleeping in classrooms and facing off against a sinister substitute teacher.

CHARLES GILMAN is an alias of Jason Rekulak, an author who lives in Philadelphia. In his past role as Publisher of Quirk Books, he brainstormed numerous best sellers including, most famously, Pride and Prejudice and Zombies.

Miss Peregrine's Peculiar Children Series

Published by Quirk Books in 2011, Miss Peregrine's Home for Peculiar Children follows sixteen-year-old Jacob Portman as he journeys from a sleepy Florida suburb to a remote island off the coast of Wales. There he stumbles upon the ruins of Miss Peregrine's orphanage and discovers the shocking fate of the children who lived there long ago—and may live there still.

Miss Peregrine was followed by two best-selling sequels, Hollow City and Library of Souls. All three novels are illustrated with dozens of vintage found photographs.

The Princess and the Fangirl

A Geekerella Fairy Tale

By Ashley Poston

The Prince and the Pauper gets a modern makeover in this adorable, witty, and heartwarming young adult novel set in the Geekerella universe by national bestselling author Ashley Poston.

Imogen Lovelace is an ordinary fangirl on an impossible mission: save her favorite character, Princess Amara, from being killed off from her favorite franchise, Starfield. The problem is, Jessica Stone—the actress who plays Princess Amara—wants nothing more than to leave the intense scrutiny of the fandom behind. If this year's ExcelsiCon isn't her last, she'll consider her career derailed.

When a case of mistaken identity throws look-a-likes Imogen and Jess together, they quickly become enemies. But when the script for the Starfield sequel leaks, and all signs point to Jess, she and Imogen must trade places to find the person responsible. That's easier said than done when the girls step into each other's shoes and discover new romantic possibilities, as well as the other side of intense fandom. As these “princesses” race to find the script-leaker, they must rescue themselves from their own expectations, and redefine what it means to live happily ever after.

ASHLEY POSTON is the author of Geekerella (Quirk Books, 2017) and Heart of Iron (HarperCollins, 2018). Her fangirl heart has taken her everywhere from the houses of Hollywood screenwriters to the stages of music festivals to geeked-out conventions (in cosplay, of course). When she is not inventing new recipes with peanut butter, having passionate dance-offs with her cat, or geeking out all over the internet, she writes books. She lives in small-town South Carolina, where you can see the stars impossibly well.

Geekerella

A Novel

by Ashley Poston

Part romance, part love letter to nerd culture, and all totally adorable, Geekerella is a fairy tale for anyone who believes in the magic of fandom. Geek girl Elle Wittimer lives and breathes Starfield, the classic sci-fi series she grew up watching with her late father. So when she sees a cosplay contest for a new Starfield movie, she has to enter. The prize? An invitation to the ExcelsiCon Cosplay Ball, and a meet-and-greet with the actor slated to play Federation Prince Carmindor in the reboot. With savings from her gig at the Magic Pumpkin food truck (and her dad's old costume), Elle's determined to win...unless her stepsisters get there first.

Teen actor Darien Freeman used to live for cons—before he was famous. Now they're nothing but autographs and awkward meet-and-greets. Playing Carmindor is all he's ever wanted, but the Starfield fandom has written him off as just another dumb heartthrob. As ExcelsiCon draws near, Darien feels more and more like a fake—until he meets a girl who shows him otherwise.

ASHLEY POSTON is the author of Geekerella (Quirk Books, 2017) and Heart of Iron (HarperCollins, 2018). Her fangirl heart has taken her everywhere from the houses of Hollywood screenwriters to the stages of music festivals to geeked-out conventions (in cosplay, of course). When she is not inventing new recipes with peanut butter, having passionate dance-offs with her cat, or geeking out all over the internet, she writes books. She lives in small-town South Carolina, where you can see the stars impossibly well.

Girls Resist!

A Guide to Activism, Leadership, and Starting a Revolution

By KaeLyn Rich

Girls Resist! is a stylish, relevant, timely activism handbook that speaks to teen girl readers like the intelligent and passionate people they are. In this age of political teen bloggers and young adult celebrities frankly discussing topics like sexism and racism, young women are more engaged, excited, and fired up than ever—but they also need guidance.

Globally-relevant topics not tied to any one country's political system will include picking a cause, fundraising, networking, and protesting. Plenty of space will be devoted to teen-specific topics like having tough talks with unsupportive family members, campaigning for representatives when you're too young to vote, and best practices for being effective (and safe!) while raising awareness on social media. Plus, an attractive design will make this as much a self-purchase as a gift, fitting perfectly between magazines and YA novels on a teen girl's shelf.

KAELYN RICH is a staff writer for popular queer women's website Autostraddle.com. A queer feminist, direct action organizer, and sexuality educator, she is the Assistant Advocacy Director of the American Civil Liberties Union of New York and the former community affairs coordinator for Planned Parenthood of Central and Western New York. She lives with her spouse, their new baby, and a house full of pets.

- Named one of the Wall Street Journal's picks for teen activism
- "Likely to become a go-to resource for young activists."—Publishers Weekly, starred review
- "Rousing and truthful...Rich is real with readers in a way that's refreshing...A smart tool to fight inequity."—Booklist

Wonder Women

25 Innovators, Inventors, and Trailblazers
Who Changed History

By Sam Maggs

Smart women have always been able to achieve amazing things, even when the odds were stacked against them. In Wonder Women, author Sam Maggs tells the stories of the brilliant, brainy, and totally rad women in history who broke barriers as scientists, engineers, mathematicians, adventurers, and inventors. Plus, interviews with real-life women in STEM careers, an extensive bibliography, and a guide to women-centric science and technology organizations—all to show the many ways the geeky girls of today can help to build the future.

SAM MAGGS is an associate writer for BioWare and the best-selling author of The Fangirl's Guide to the Galaxy and Wonder Women, both published by Quirk Books. Sam has been an editor for the geek girl culture site The Mary Sue and has been published across the web and in other books about gaming and genre.

Girl Squads

Female Friendships That Changed History

By Sam Maggs

A modern girl is nothing without her squad of best friends. But don't let all the hashtags fool you: the #girlsquad goes back a long, long time. In this hilarious and heartfelt book, geek girl Sam Maggs takes you on a tour of some of history's most famous female BFFs

Spanning art, science, politics, activism, and even sports, these girl squads show just how essential female friendship has been throughout history and throughout the world. Maggs brings her signature wit and warmth as she pays tribute to the enduring power of the girl squad. Fun, feisty, and delightful to read—with empowering illustrations by artist Jenn Woodall—it's the perfect gift for your BFF.
