Spring 2020

H E L L O A N D W E L C O M E

How delightful! Finally, we have some peace of mind! We've had a few hectic years: we've moved a lot of times, we runned a big creative workplace in an old factory of the Dutch National Railways, hired new people etc. etc. But now! We have a permanent office with lovely old stairs, a kind of garden, a terrace near the water and a full-time team. And despite all this stability, we remain fresh and fruity. From the inside, that is, (see pictures for the un-photoshopped exterior). And with that fresh fruitiness, we have made a few huge chunks of bestsellers-to-be. See for yourself!

How big is your ecological footprint? With the tips in this brightly illustrated calendar you can help reduce it. Jessica den Hartog and Jessica Nielsen are a designer and illustrator who want to show that you can do a lot even taking small steps. The text in the calendar is printed in a special font that uses less ink. The colour palette for the illustrations of Jessica Nielsen is based on 'Recolored', the research by Jessica den Hartog about recycled plastic and all the possibilities of this waste.

In alles zo duurzaam mogelijk

Uitvoering:

Vanzelfsprekend zullen de kaarten op een duurzame wijze geproduceerd worden. Daarbij zullen er bewuste keuzes gemaakt worden wat betreft papier, inkt en houder.

Ook zal de benodigde inkt voor het lettertype en de illustraties zoveel mogelijk geminimaliseerd worden zonder afbreuk te doen aan de kracht van de boodschap.

Alle kaarten zullen een blanco achtergrond hebben zodat er minder inkt nodig is.

gerecycled papier

bio inkt

compact verzenden

minimaliseren van inkt en papier door slim te ontwerpen

Houder:

De stapel kaarten staat op een minimalistische houder die je op tafel of het aanrecht kunt zetten.

De houder bestaat uit twee onderdelen van stevig karton die simpel in elkaar geschoven kunnen worden. De houder kan plat verpakt / verzonden worden.

Kleuren:

Het Kleurenpalet voor de Kaarten is gebaseerd op 'Recycled' het onderzoek van Jessica den Hartog naar gerecycled plastic en alle mogelijkheden van dat afval omgezet naar een verzamelde kleur en modellen in de theek.
